

Distortion and Tits alternative for big mapping class groups

Emmanuel Militon
Université Nice, France

Abstract: The setting of this talk is the study of actions of finitely generated groups on surfaces. When such an action has a Cantor set as minimal invariant set, we are naturally led to study groups of mapping classes which preserve a Cantor set. I will introduce some results of a joint work with Sebastian Hurtado on these big mapping class groups.